Enlightened Hays City.

It is a pleasure to see our neighoring newspaper exchanges give the Bispham Concert nice notic-They got free tickets and it was to be expected and they will likely get them next year.

Hays City is noted for having the most enlightened and literary and musical people in the state. Eastern visitors always remark it. Coming from the best eastern cities, our people have been educated that way and keep it up here, so we have some elegant musical talent, some entertaining literary people among us. And the coming of the Normal has much improved it, both in our society, social gatherings and churches to which they are all gladly welcome.

A community of inteligent people we are pleased to live among and to invite others to come.

Our people showed their knowledge of a good thing when they fought hard for the Ft. Hays Reservation to be for a Normal School, an educational institution, rather than a Government Fort like Fort Riley. Less mon-ey but more enlightenment! People buy and build lovely homes here to stay and make this their home and are proud of our little city. They gladly pay the price to attend anything good-always ready to encourage.

This week EVERY household of these people are loud in praise of the Normal concert, the Jubilee Singers. Last week NEARLY every home of these people felt sore over the Bispham concert and were ready and open in saying so. There is no hypocracyno make believe you like a thing when you don't-with our enlightened citizens.

Mr. Bispham has a great reputation, but he is like some noted soap-there is no suds to make bubbles. He had a fine voice but his concert was jumbled together; you hardly knew when one piece ended and another begun; he had no exits or entre; didn't even know enough to sit down occassionally, and but for the printed words the audience would not have known what he was singing. From here he went to Kansas City and there the papers reasted him to a finish.

draw a crowd again while he wouldn't have twenty-five in an

No one blames the Normal people, for they also were disappointed, Only it was there medrine and had to be taken. But enlighte. -d Hays and Ellis county people know a wood thing and quickly and openly conac. is so generally considered unsatisfactory. They had paid the price and were disappointed.
